Notes to Financial Statements

NOTE 1 – ORGANIZATION

This summary of significant accounting policies of the Extreme Kids & Crew, Inc (hereinafter “Extreme Kids”) is presented to assist in understanding Extreme Kids Inc’s financial statements. The financial statements and notes are representations of Extreme Kids Inc’s management who is responsible for the integrity and objectivity of the financial statements. These accounting policies conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and have been consistently applied in the preparation of the financial statements.

At Extreme Kids & Crew, we cultivate welcoming, accessible spaces where children and teens with disabilities and their people create a supportive community through the arts, play and conversation. We seek to show people that disability is not to be feared, pitied or mindlessly exalted, but understood to be an inherent part of life. We achieve this by establishing and maintaining creative community centers that serve to connect and celebrate those with disabilities and the people in their lives.

The sources of financial support are from grants and contributions from governments, individuals, foundations and corporations.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES

Basis for Accounting:

The accompanying financial statements of Extreme Kids have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”).

Basis of Presentation

The classification of Extreme Kids’ net assets and its support, revenue and expenses is based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. It requires that the amounts for each of two classes of net assets - without donor restrictions and with donor restrictions - be displayed in a statement of financial position and that the amounts of change in each of those classes of net assets be displayed in a statement of activities.

These two classes are defined as follows:

Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions - represents all activity without donor-imposed restrictions as well as activity with donor-imposed restrictions that expire within the same period.

Net Assets With Donor Restrictions – represents those resources, the uses of which have been restricted by donors to specific purposes or the passage of time and/or must remain intact in perpetuity.

Extreme Kids and Crew, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

Revenue Recognition

Extreme Kids follows the requirements of Financial Accounting Standards Board's ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 958-605 for recording contributions, which are recorded at the earlier of when cash is received or at the time a pledge becomes unconditional in nature. Contributions are recorded in one of the classes of net assets described above, depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor-imposed restriction. When a restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends, or purpose restriction is accomplished, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions. If donor restricted contributions are satisfied in the same period they are received, they are classified as without donor restrictions.

Contributions may be subject to conditions which are defined as both a barrier to entitlement and a right of return of payments or release from obligations and are recognized as income once the conditions have been substantially met.

Contributions and grants expected to be received within one year are recorded at net realizable value. Long-term pledges are recorded at fair value, using risk adjusted present value techniques.

Extreme Kids follows the requirements of FASB's ASC 606 for recognizing revenue from contracts with customers. Grants are recognized as revenue in the corresponding period in which they are earned. Unearned contracts and agreements that have not been collected at year-end are reflected as a receivable, while those received in advance of the membership period are treated as deferred income.

All receivables at December 31, 2022 are due within one year. Receivables are reviewed for collectability. Based on knowledge of specific donors and factoring in historical experience, no allowance for doubtful accounts exists as of December 31, 2022. Write-offs will be made in the period the receivable is deemed to be uncollectable.

Revenue is reported as increases in net assets without donor restrictions unless its use is limited by donor-imposed restrictions. Expenses are reported as decreases in net assets without donor restrictions. When Extreme Kids receives an unconditional promise to give that is expected to be collected within one year, it is recorded at net realizable value. Conditional promises to give are recognized when the conditions on which they depend are substantially met.

Measure of Operations

The statement of activities reports all changes in net assets, including changes in net assets from operating and non-operating activities. Operating activities consist of those items attributable to Extreme Kids' ongoing services. Non-operating activities are limited to the net gain or loss in accrued

Extreme Kids and Crew, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Extreme Kids considers all liquid investments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash and cash equivalents except for cash held in the investment accounts.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject Extreme Kids to concentration of credit risk consist of cash, money market accounts, and investment securities which are placed with financial institutions that management deems to be creditworthy. Throughout the year, balances did not exceed insurance levels.

Fixed Assets

Fixed Assets that Extreme Kids owns and which benefit future periods are capitalized at cost or, if donated, at the estimated fair value at the time of donation. Routine maintenance that does not extend the life of fixed assets is expensed when incurred. Depreciation is recorded using the straight-line method over each asset's estimated useful life. Fixed assets consist of building improvements, furniture, equipment and computers, which are carried at cost and are depreciated over their useful lives using the straight-line method.

In-Kind Contributions:

Extreme Kids recognizes contributions for donated space and/or goods and services that create or enhance non-financial assets and requires specialized skills, are performed by those who possess those skills, and would have been purchased if they had not been donated.

Many individuals volunteer their time and perform a variety of tasks to assist with specific assistance programs, campaign solicitation, and various committee assignments. No amounts have been reflected in the financial statements for these types of donated services because they do not meet the criteria for recognition as outlined above.

Advertising Costs

Costs of promotion and advertising are expensed as incurred. There were marketing efforts during the year end December 31, 2022.

Use of Estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Functional Allocation of Expenses:

The costs of providing various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the accompanying statement of activities. Accordingly, expenses have been allocated among the programs and supporting services using appropriate measurement methodologies developed by management. Natural expenses attributable to more than one functional expense category are allocated using a variety of cost allocation techniques such as square footage and time and effort.

Extreme Kids and Crew, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

Income Taxes

Extreme Kids follows the accounting standard for uncertainty in income taxes. The standard prescribes a minimum recognition threshold and measurement methodology that a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return is required to meet before being recognized in the financial statements. It also provides guidance for de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure and transition. Extreme Kids is subject to regular audit by tax authorities. Management believes that it has appropriate support for the positions taken on its tax returns. In assessing the realizability of tax benefits, management considers whether it is more likely than not that some portion or all of any tax position will not be realized. Nonetheless, the amounts ultimately paid, if any, upon resolution of the issues raised by the taxing authorities may differ materially from the amounts filed. Management believes that its nonprofit status would be sustained upon examination.

Extreme Kids is exempt from federal and state income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the “Code”) and is classified as a publicly supported organization as described in Section 509(a).

The financial statements include certain prior-year summarized comparative information in total but not by net asset class. Such information does not include sufficient detail to constitute a presentation in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Accordingly, such information should be read in conjunction with Extreme Kids’ financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2022, from which the summarized information was derived.
