

2022 Mid-Year Review

What a year it has been so far!

In 2022, we have solidified our online programming into a robust collection of clubs, facilitated a six-week arts program in Sunset Park, hosted professional development trainings at PS 15, hosted an advocacy panel and our annual gala, and so much more.

Here are a few highlights from January-June!

PEOPLE SERVED

525
participants

385
families

With increasingly expanding offerings and our return to in-person programming, we've already blown past our number of total people served in 2021.

EXPANDING OUR FOOTPRINT

Facilitated six weeks of arts programming at P.S. 503 in Sunset Park

Collaborated with ICDL to present a DIR floortime training program for EKC staff and teachers of P.S. 15

Brought our popular summer camp to P.S. 676 in Brooklyn

Facilitated more than 300 hours

of special interest club programming for 69 young people

We hosted our second advocacy panel:
Emotional Disturbance: How A Controversial IEP Designation Fails Black Boys

111

people attended this online discussion

9/10

attendees said they felt compelled to address these issues in their professional lives as a result of the panel

529

have watched it on YouTube

ANNUAL GALA

89

people attended our annual celebration of Extreme Kids

10

young people honored for their contributions to Extreme Kids