INTRODUCTION

ABOUT THIS DIRECTORY

This directory lists services available to Brooklyn individuals with a developmental disability and/or their families. In order to use many of these services, the person with a developmental disability must live with his or her family in Brooklyn. Developmental disabilities include: mental retardation, autism, cerebral palsy, neurological impairment, global delays and epilepsy.

This directory includes the programs for Brooklyn families that are funded by the New York State Office of People with Developmental Disabilities and administered through its local office, the Brooklyn Developmental Disabilities Services Office. Also included are several other programs appropriate for families with a relative with a developmental disability. Please call Family Support Coordinator Angela Blades at (718) 642-8665 or email Angela.Blades@opwdd.ny.gov to obtain additional copies of this guide or if you have questions regarding any of the services provided in this directory.

ABOUT THE BROOKLYN FAMILY SUPPORT SERVICE ADVISORY COUNCIL

The Brooklyn Family Support Service Advisory Council is an advisory committee to the New York State Office of People with Developmental Disabilities and its Brooklyn office. The Council is made up of family members of persons with developmental disabilities and consumers with developmental disabilities from all neighborhoods in Brooklyn. The Council meets regularly to learn what families need and to advocate to get those needs met. Come share your concerns and learn about services that can help your family. Join with other family members and consumers to build a better life for people with developmental disabilities and their families. For information, please call Debra Greif, Chairperson at (718) 642-8512 office or www.bfssac.com

ABOUT THE BROOKLYN DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES COUNCIL

The Brooklyn Developmental Disabilities Council collaborates with the New York State Office of People with Developmental Disabilities, as well as the New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, on many issues. This Council is made up of service providers, governmental representatives, and families of people with developmental disabilities. The Council sponsors monthly meetings that offer families of people with developmental disabilities an excellent opportunity to join with others in advocating for whatever is needed. Please join us. For information and a meeting schedule, call Lorenzo Brown, Chairperson at (718) 788-5252.

ABOUT THE BROOKLYN FAMILY SUPPORT COMMITTEE

The Brooklyn Family Support Committee is a sub-committee of the Brooklyn Developmental Disabilities Council. The Committee meets monthly to share resources, network, and learn about programs and services that may benefit persons with developmental disabilities and their families. They also assist the Brooklyn Developmental Disabilities Council in identifying needs and priorities for this population. This Committee is responsible for the Annual Brooklyn Family Support Fair. Professionals, family members, advocates and individuals with disabilities are welcome. Please call Co-Chairperson Jay Klienman (718) 454-6940 or Patricia Cherry (718) 906-5439 for more information.
